About Team Combat League

Launched in March 2023, Team Combat League (“TCL”) is the nation’s first and only boxing league with a team-based ownership model. TCL matches feature 24 three-minute rounds of non-stop action. Competitors compete in one-round matches and are categorized into eight weight classes, consisting of six male weight classes of 126lbs., 135lbs., 147lbs., 160lbs., 175lbs., and 201lbs.+ and two female weight classes of 126lbs. and 147lbs. Sixteen fighters or two fighters per weight class per team appear in each match. Each match is broken up into three periods. The first 8 rounds are the Launch Rounds, rounds 9-16 are the Middle Rounds and rounds 17-24 are the Money Rounds. TCL employs an exclusive point scoring system and each round is scored individually. Judging is carried out by a panel of three judges, which are licensed by a State Athletic Boxing Commission. A round is scored 10-9 for the winner of a decision based on points. If a knockdown occurs, the scoring is 10-8, and in the case of two knockdowns or a stoppage, the round is scored a 10-7. The scoring process is straightforward: all the individual round scores are added up and the team with the highest total score at the end of all 24 rounds wins. Each TCL season begins in March and concludes with the championship match, The Super Fight. A total of 12 teams will participate in the 2024 season, up from 6 teams in the league's inaugural season in 2023. For more information, please visit: <https://teamcombatleague.com>.
